EL PASO (Tex.) May 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "American and small, need no longer come with bribe money in hand to establish themselves, or their industries, in the State of Chihuahua—no so long as I am Governor. There shall be no more room to the Executive office where blocks of stock may be traded for concessions. We shall welcome Americans and their money; we have room for many of them. But we hope to have honesty within and we expect honesty from without. When concessions are granted they shall be granted publicly, and to the highest bidder without discrimination and the proceeds shall go into the public treasury."

This is the platform of Abraham Gonzalez, provisional Governor of Chihuahua, who will become that State's Executive under the Maderist reconstruction and who is certain to be the revolutionary candidate when there is a regular election. If he has an opponent that person will stand about as much chance of defeating Abraham as a G.O.P. candidate has of success in Mississippi.

MUST RECKON WITH HIM.
Gonzales is, in short, the man with whom vast foreign interests must reckon. American investments in his State in cattle ranches, timber lands, railroads, mines and smelters, run into the hundreds of millions more than in any other State in Mexico.

Chihuahua has long been the empire of Enrique Creel and his kinsman, Terrazas. Any part of Chihuahua which they did not own personally was circled by their political fence, stretching around the State from post to post of the toll gate of opportunity.

Over the gate for years stood the sign:

"Creel and Terrazas; pay here."

When the little land owners and merchants and miners saw the opportunity to kick down the toll gate and tear up the fence they joined the revolution. Having succeeded, they were asking: "What shall we do now to Creel and Terrazas?"

But the man who is to succeed, in fact he already has succeeded, is the political authority to which the oligarchy of Creel has gripped so long, declared today that they shall be no reprisals made against any citizen.

EQUALLY AND HONESTLY.

"We certainly do not wish to deprive any of the gentlemen of their political rights," said Gonzalez to the correspondent. "We want them to vote and to exert every influence in politics, but equally and honestly."

"How have things fallen completely into the hands of the Creel and Terrazas families in Chihuahua?" the new Governor was asked.

"Theoretically, concessions are granted by the State Legislature or Assembly," he said, "but practically this power has rested in the past in the hands of the Governor. These men named the Governor, who, in turn, controlled the Assemblies. Then the first requisite of launching successfully any business enterprise in this part of Mexico was a bribe fund or else it would be found inconvenient to grant the desired concession."

PERSONNEL OF GOVERNMENT.

"How far," asked the correspondent, "do you expect to change the personnel of the government? Has the corruption permeated all the way down?"

"I do not believe the employees of the government are all bad," replied Gov. Gonzalez. "Many of them have been compelled to follow the practice of which they did not approve. Graft has thus become part of the system. We wish to make only such changes as will eliminate graft. If there is honesty at the top it should not be difficult to make it obtain all the way down."

Abraham Gonzalez, the Mexican, usually corrupts his Christian name and his surname, but he signs it plain Abraham. He is a grandson and a nephew of two former Governors of Chihuahua. He inherited little money, but brains, courage and an even tempered, happy disposition. He has made his small fortune by hard work, mainly as a cattle broker. Incidentally he has mined in his native hills, and has sold some mines to Americans.

He speaks English almost perfectly and is known as a friend to the Americans, who call him "Honest Abram," and testify that none of their money ever stuck to his fingers. He is 44 years old, and a resident of the city of Chihuahua.

"Whatever feeling there is against Americans in my country," said Gov. Gonzalez, "is due almost altogether to the gobbling up of our resources through corrupt means, though unfortunately means which our system has encouraged, if not imposed. You will find no feeling against Americans or foreigners in general, when there is honesty on both sides."

Long opposed to the Creel domination, Gonzalez became leader of the anti-revolution party, when Madero was elected President, and was Provisional Governor of Chihuahua when war was proclaimed last November. He had no personal knowledge of blood relations in the insurrectionary army of whom six were killed.

"TERRIBLE EIGHTH BATTALION"

IN FARCE-COMEDY BATTLE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CALIXTO (Cal.) May 21.—Lower California from the Colorado River, from the international line to the Gulf of California, is now in possession of the insurgents. The expected battle between Col. Mayol's "Terrible Eighth Battalion" and the Mexicali rebels developed today into a farce comedy. Mayol and his men are on their way to Pico de Pasa which the insurgents have left unguarded since Gen. Pryce and his men went westward.

The movement of the Federalists began during the latter part of last night when a party of fifty was sent out from the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company's headquarters to make a detour south of Mexicali and reach the Leroy Little ranch southwest of town. Other parties of from forty to fifty followed at intervals during today. One section came within a mile of Mexicali and insurgent scouts fired several shots at them, but received no response.

FEDERALS TURN BACK.

This afternoon scouts brought in news that the Federalists had turned back and would come up on Mexicali from the south and west. Instantly the town was in confusion. Men were ordered into the rifle pits along the banks of the New River and a party was sent across the river to engage the Federalists from ambush.

Among the heavy growth of mesquite and willows, only three Indians were captured, the Federalists having kept on their way southward. Mayol's force had with them numerous women and children and on their march several women became exhausted and dropped down. The insurgents sent out parties to care for these and bring them into Mexicali. One woman had given birth to a child. The only infant available for this newborn infant was one made from unning together handkerchiefs and thus the babe was wrapped when

VIOLATION OF THE ARMISTICE,

BUT ONLY IN NAME OF PEACE.

MEXICO CITY, May 21.—In the name of peace, Gen. Ambrosio Figueroa this morning took possession of Cuernavaca, which was deserted but before dawn by Gen. Cuernavaca and his less than 200 men. Technically violating the terms of the armistice by moving his forces the rebel leader justified his action by the statement that he entered the capital of Morelos solely for the purpose of maintaining order.

The story of the evacuation and subsequent occupation was brought to Mexico City this afternoon. Refusing to believe the statement of Col. Ambrosio, one of Figueroa's officers, that the city would not be attacked until after the expiration of the armistice, Col. Cuernavaca last night determined to abandon the place. When residents this morning learned that he had gone there was a rush of citizens and civil authorities to follow him.

From the remaining residents a committee was hastily named and sent to Figueroa. This committee appealed to him to observe the maintenance of order. Promptly at 11 o'clock, the rebels, more than 1000 in number, marched into the city. Shot was fired and the Sunday quiet was scarcely disturbed by their coming. Guards were immediately thrown out and substituted named to act temporarily for the fleeing civil authorities.

Minister of Foreign Relations De la Barra looked disappointed when he stated that owing to the non-arrival of advice from Gen. Madero, he could not announce the personnel of the new Cabinet. The condition of Gen. Diaz was reported as showing further improvement today.

broken by the State Board of Control

when it turned back into the general fund the unexpended balance of appropriations made for the various State institutions. The report, just made up shows that $214,745 reverted to the State on April 1 out of the total appropriation in 1909.

Of this amount, more than half comes from the State penitentiary,

for out of an appropriation of $678,

$40 the board spent only $58,925.

Chairman Cowen of the State Board of Control says this saving has been brought about by heavy application of business principles in all institutions,

as desired by Gov. Hay, by the development of farm and stock

institutions which have helped cut down the meat bills and good fortune in the placing of contracts for fuel. Others assert the saving made proves that the

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LAREDO (Tex.) May 21.—At the end of a rope which had been tied around his neck, Dr. J. W. Lim, a Chinese banker, was dragged around the plaza in Torreon, Mex., until his body was a mass of broken bones

and bleeding wounds, according to reports reaching here today.

From the same source of information details of a three-day battle

at Torreon between revolutionists and Federal forces were received. The battle is said to have occurred May 13, 14 and 15, resulting in a rebel victory.

Dr. Lim was one of the wealthiest

Chinese in North Texas and was controlled by Chinese capitalists. After dragging him around the plaza until he was almost dead, it is reported

the rebels shot him several times.

He died within a few minutes.

Another report said one of the Torreon hotel proprietors, who was hanged by rebels after several Spaniards had been fired at in Torreon, was killed by the rebels.

The reports of the Torreon insurrection were brought by an American locomotive engineer, who escaped on a horse and later got a hand-car from the rebels. He was taken to

EXPLOSION KILLS FIVE.

Whole Family of Girls Burn to Death When Mother Mistakes Gasoline for Coal Oil.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
UTICA (Kan.) May 21.—Five daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Roach, ranging in age from 7 to 14 years, were burned to death last night in a fire which started in the Roach restaurant. The parents were badly burned.

The mother of the girls filled a lamp with gasoline by mistake and lighted it. An explosion followed.
The fire leaped a two-gallon can of gasoline, sending a burst of flames up the narrow stairway to a bedroom where all the children lay asleep.

The woman's fire, but the flames were extinguished by her husband, who then rushed up the staircase and caught his youngest daughter, 5 years old, in his arms.
Calling to the other girls to follow him, he ran into his arms. He ran to a rear window and jumped to the ground, the little girl safe in his arms.
The mother of the five girls the others as they jumped, but they did not reach the window. Half an hour later the five girls were taken from their charred beds.

The dead are: Beatie, aged 16;
Leah, aged 14; Ruth, aged 13; aged 8; and Fern, aged 7. They will be buried together in one grave tomorrow.

TRADITION IN ENGLAND.

Norman French Still the Legal Language of the Government in Legislative Matters.

[New York Press.] England has always had an affection for custom.
So persistent is it in keeping to the forms and traditions of the past that it has been dubbed a "museum of antiquities" among modern nations.

It is somewhat odd that the Norman French of Edward the Confessor should still be the language, the legal voice of Parliament, but so it is.
Whenever a bill has passed the Commons, the clerk, before he forwards it to the House of Lords, writes upon it, according to ancient usage: "Sic balle au Seigneurs" (Let it be sent to the Lords).
If it is sent from the Peers to the Commons, it bears the like indorsement: "Sic balle aux Communes."
(Let it be sent to the Commons.)

Should a bill pass both houses it needs only the royal assent to become a law. Here the Norman French appears again. The Commons, sum-

The city outside of Los Angeles, in which may reside the contestant who scores the largest number of points in the "Examiner's" $125,000 contest among out-of-Los Angeles contestants, the sum of $500 will be paid. Such $500 is to be used for charity or the public good in the manner that may be determined by the Mayor and the Chamber of Commerce. This contest is open to all cities and towns outside of Los Angeles, no matter in what State or section.

How You May Secure Votes

There are two ways of securing votes. The first is by clipping and sending to the contest editor the coupons which will appear daily in the "Examiner" commencing May 22. A second and more substantial way to proceed is for contestant to secure subscriptions for the "Examiner," and for these subscriptions votes will be issued as per vote schedule. All subscriptions must be paid in advance, and the same scale of votes will be issued on all such subscriptions, whether old or new.

Schedule of rates that will be issued on all paid-in-advance subscriptions:

	By Agent or Carrier.	By Mail.	Will Count for Votes.
One Month's Subscription	$ 15	$ 15	25
Three Months' Subscription	45	45	75
Six Months' Subscription	85	85	150
One Year's Subscription	165	165	300
Two Years' Subscription	325	325	600
Three Years' Subscription	485	485	900
Five Years' Subscription	745	745	1350
One Year, Sunday Only	3.00	3.00	1.00

Mail subscriptions cannot be accepted for any place where a carrier service exists. In other words, mail subscriptions will be accepted for places where there is no carrier service.

Cash For Nominations

To the person nominating the contestant who scores the largest number of points in the $125,000-contest, the "Examiner" will pay $150 in cash.

To the person nominating the contestant scoring the second largest number of points, the "Examiner" will pay $100 in cash.

Contestants themselves will not be eligible to secure such rewards.

Socialist Majority Caucus Weir Function.

Speak Pieces and Sing Songs in All-Day Jax-Wag.

Job Harriman Named for Job of Chief Executive.

What is conceded even by the participants therein to have been the weirdest thing that ever happened under the aegis of a political caucus, was the one held in the morning until dark, the purpose of which was to elect a majority of the Labor Temple to the office of the Labor Temple. The caucus was held in the morning until dark, the purpose of which was to elect a majority of the Labor Temple to the office of the Labor Temple. The caucus was held in the morning until dark, the purpose of which was to elect a majority of the Labor Temple to the office of the Labor Temple.

Amid the deafening din and confusion that several times threatened to break up the convention, Job Harriman insinuated himself into the nomination for Mayor. Time and again he was compelled to jump up and frantically plead for order that the calling of his name could be heard more distinctly by the voters.

Excitement became intense when it was found that the cut-and-dried ticket selected by a committee of five reds and five laborites, was the one to be presented to the voters. The day was saved and the honor of the convention sustained when a grizzled comrade slipped stealthily up to the speaker's table and deposited a clipping from yesterday morning's Times. The clipping contained the names of the candidates, unknown to practically all the Socialists except him Mayor, attempted to play into the laborite hands, although the chair had declared that the motion was "unconstitutional."

Cauchy's outburst resulted when exception was taken to Frank B. McMahon's name being placed in nomination. McMahon is a member of the bricklayers' union, but does not hold the card of a Socialist party. Regardless of Harriman and other laborite-socialists, McMahon's name was withdrawn from nomination after threats to enter it from the blackboard had been made.

Frank E. Wolfe, ex-scribe, and former Good Government campaign adviser and chairman of the convention, presented a resolution condemning the arrest of the McNamara and scolding the present administration. Wolfe said that the Goo-Gooes were a bad lot.

TROUBLES OF CHAIRMAN. In the excitement Chairman Miner was frequently unable to remember that action to take on different matters. Whenever he didn't understand, he smashed the table with his gavel and declared everything out of order. In one of his mighty swings he lost his balance and fell over, carrying the blackboard with the names of the candidates down with him.

HUGE COMBINE OF THEATERS.

Five Big Local Playhouses Under One Management.

Oliver Morosco at Head of Veritable Syndicate.

Million-Dollar Corporation Will Be Born Today.

The Morosco-Blackwood Company, a new corporation to take over the management of the theaters heretofore under the control of Oliver Morosco and the Belasco-Blackwood Company in Los Angeles, will file articles of incorporation in Sacramento today.

The new company will have a capitalization of $1,000,000, half of which will be represented by common stock.

and half by preferred stock, bearing an 8 per cent. interest guarantee.

The officers of the corporation are Oliver Morosco, president; John H. Blackwood, vice-president, and A. C. Jones, secretary-treasurer.

This combination is the biggest theatrical deal ever entered into west of the Mississippi River, one of the biggest in the history of the country, and in the age of combinations most significant.

The theaters under the control of this powerful organization are the Burbank, Belasco, Hamburger Majestic, the old Orpheum—which is to be renamed the Lyceum—and the new Belasco, about to be built on South Broadway.

The heads of the concern say that the wasting of money in meaningless combinations—some of which could be obtained from their authors for eastern use at $250 per week, for instance, cost $1000 a week in Los Angeles on account of the Morosco-Belasco rivalry. On these and other savings due to combination, a leakage of $50,000 per annum is expected to be effectual.

Consolidation will be the rule up and down the line, and, apparently, Los Angeles will have a most unique theatrical corporation.

DETECTIVES ARRIVE.

Bringing Infernal Machines and Dynamite Taken From the McNamara and Accomplishes.

Two operatives of the Burns Detective Agency arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from Chicago, bringing a large assortment of evidence against the alleged dynamiters of the Times Building. They brought, for one item, a clock bomb found at the McNamara home, that is an exact duplicate of the one discovered at the home of Mr. Zeehandelaar in this city on the morning of October 1, "explosion day." The detectives will turn over the evidence to Dist. Atty. Fredericks.

BRIGHT INTELLECT GONE.

Death of Mrs. Walter Model Brings Sorrow to Many Friends in Southern California.

Heavy grief lies upon the Russian and French colonies of Los Angeles on account of the death of Mrs. Walter Model at a local hospital Saturday night at 7 o'clock.

Although she had resided here only eighteen months, Mrs. Model had won the hearts of the thinking and cultured members of both these colonies.

Coming here directly from New York City to marry the man she had loved for many years, and who had preceded her to establish their home in the West, Mrs. Model was taken at once to a pretty cottage upon Oak Hill, near the Cawston ostrich farm, close to the bungalow of her husband's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Model.

Mrs. Model was an ardent student of biology and economics, and those who knew her counted her among the brightest intellects of the community. Her great wish was that she might share the light and flowers of California with the arcade of the tenements in New York City.

"I cannot get over a selfish feeling," she said, "in having an acre of pine to myself, when I think how many hundreds might share its happiness. Some day the people of the big cities will hunt for the land, and then they will look to the West for their homes."

Mrs. Model is survived by her husband and by a son only a few days old.

HIS ARGUMENT CONVINCING. Congregation Impressed With Speaker's Pica for Outdoor Exercise for Children.

That the problem of rearing young boys and girls, and of looking closely to their morals during the critical period of their development, may be rendered immeasurably simpler by exercise, taken systematically in the open air, is a theory argued so convincingly by Y. P. Rothwell at the Plying Congregation Church last night that the members have decided to retain him as a community physical director.

The congregation decided that he was the man to teach the children of the neighborhood how to take advantage of their outdoor opportunities. A collection netted a surprising amount to be ultimately taken up.

Rothwell came here recently from Vancouver, and spoke at the instance of Rev. Tyler Dennett, pastor of the church. He has been president of an athletic club in that city, of the Hutchinson Club in Kansas City, and of other institutions in the East. His salary for the summer will be paid by the church members, aided by future pledges, and he will give an outdoor education to all the children of the neighborhood, no matter what their church affiliation is.

GUNS AND BELLS WEDDING MUSIC.

Chimes and Six-Shooters Had a Mission Bride.

Arcadia of Padres in Joyous Nuptial Fete.

Ancient Capistrano Merry in Bridal Garb.

Redolent, in spite of its semi-tropical setting, with the very breath and spirit of Evaneline, the beautiful old Spanish arcadia of San Juan Capistrano was at its best and bravest Saturday to celebrate the prettiest wedding it has known in many a day. To the chorus of glad-throated bells in the towers of the ancient mission that was nearly buried under a myriad of blossoms, Sonora Pan-chita Jauregui, the belle of Capistrano, became the bride of Monsieur George Leveque, a young Frenchman just from Paris, cousin to Father Queta, pastor of the mission.

For two days, preceding the ceremony youth and matrons busied themselves in bringing flowers, wild and cultivated, to the mission chapel. The white plaster interior, with its quaint gilded wooden statues was hung with festoons of flowers, wailing bells and arches of green were erected. The adobe sacristy was runniced for all the old silver candle holders and plate, the gold and lace altar cloth, which is only used on rare occasions, was brought out and two draped prie dieux placed for the bride and groom before the altar.

GENERAL HOLIDAY. The fact of the wedding occurring on a week day excited no worry among the easy-going inhabitants of the section. A tacit agreement was all that was necessary to separate the ranchers from whatever labor they were engaged with for the day. No one worked on Father's wedding day, and every one in Capistrano together with those from the ranches as far as El Toro, Mission Viejo, and Santa Margarita drove that morning to be on time. By 11 o'clock a long line of saddle horses, spring wagons and buckboards were tied to the fences surrounding the mission grounds.

The mission gates were thrown open as the bridal procession came in sight. It is a peculiar custom in Capistrano that the bride party, no matter of what rank, is compelled to must walk through the main street, up to the mission. The bride and groom, and their relatives and friends, walked slowly through the little village and up to the doors of the church, the spectators applauding with murmurs of admiration as they went.

The chapel was filled to the doors, with people standing and kneeling on the red brick floor. In the rough, board pews, and some even perched on the high steps of the choir loft. The high altar was a mass of brilliant flowers and a blaze of lighted candles in their silver holders.

The Rev. Alfred Queta celebrated the nuptial mass, and Father St. John O'Sullivan acted as master of ceremonies. Music, chiefly beautiful old Latin hymns, was furnished by gentlemen and ladies from the French colony of the Valenciana ranch. Immediately upon reappearing out-

SENDS FAT CHECK TO GIRL WHO WEDS RIVAL.

TWO WIN and wed one of Los Angeles' charming young bachelors. That night Guiney, who is having a home built near the Dawson residence, camped on the front steps of his home and waited for the return of his beloved and her companion. He waited until after 11 o'clock and saw the hated Bobby bring the fair Miss Dawson home and bid her good night.

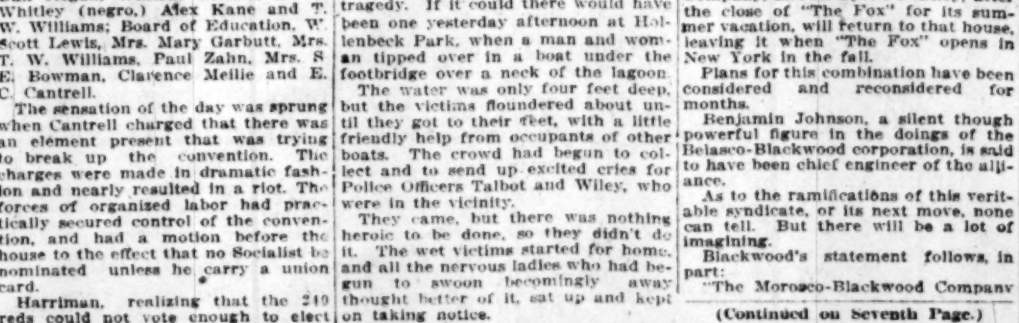

The next day Guiney stalked into the Dawson home and told Miss Dawson in the presence of her mamma that all was over. All Miss Dawson it seems was not quite prepared to have such an ending to her romance. She promptly fainted and required the attention of a physician.

Guiney, who can see through a millstone if there is a hole in it, went downtown and secured a marriage license and returned to the Dawson home, where he again confronted his sweetheart, now somewhat recovered. Tragically he waved the paper before her eyes and said in villainous tones, "Sign these papers."

"What is it?" asked Miss Dawson. "Our marriage license," said Guiney dramatically. "I don't believe I will sign it," said Miss Dawson, with a return of her former spirit. "And again aha," said Guiney. "You think again to foil me!" and he made a motion as though to tear up the parchment. "Hold!" shrieked Miss Dawson, as she seized Guiney's hand. "I am done. I will be your wife."

She signed. "Now," said Guiney, "you call up Bobby on the telephone and tell him in my presence that you are going to be my wife."

Miss Dawson endeavored to beg off. No use. She finally called up Bobby and told him in quivering tones that she was about to marry Guiney and that she was sorry and a lot of other things. Miss Dawson, with the result that the mind of that delightful young lady was in a whirl of indecision.

BY GREY OLIVER.

Vernon, 12; Los Angeles, 5. Afternoon game.

Francis Hosp, the pitcher-utility man who was not good enough for the Los Angeles team, proved to be the big star of the day yesterday in the local baseball firmament for he hit two home runs over the left field fence and made a single in three times at bat in the morning game at Vernon.

He might have made another homer and a triple if he could have remained in the game, but was forced to retire in the beginning of the sixth inning when a thrown ball tore a section off of his finger nail.

It has been many years and probably never for some of the fans since the general public saw two homers in one game by any ball player in this league, but with the new lively ball that is used these days anything is possible. It is not the pitcher's turn to yell bloody murder and some of them will be doing it in loud screams by the end of this month if business keeps up like it has the past three weeks.

Yesterday's bombardment was a fine illustration of the fact that a budding young player or a leafless old one has of doing anything, but something desperate these days. In that morning game, where Hitt and Coachman were the fingers, the player knocked two home runs, two triples, three doubles and thirteen singles and if that is not going some for a hot morning, I do not know the difference between a horse and a cow.

Then in the afternoon with Delhi and Carson pitching, and Harry Hermann of the National Commission and the Cincinnati Club looking on, there were one triple, four doubles and twenty singles ripped off and this is also a polling expedition of some magnitude.

Any team is liable to win in any inning, if it is even four or five runs behind, with this kind of punching and if that continues it is more than probable that N.G.O. will butt in and have an ordinance passed doing away with baseball on the ground that it is nothing but a slugging contest.

The afternoon game with the most exciting one the two, for each team made its runs in chunks. Vernon getting four in the second, and the Angels four in the third. Then after the Angels had crowded around one in the sixth, Vernon made a grand-slam finish in the ninth and scored two runs, and won the game, with Harry Hermann, the big Elk, looking on.

This matinee was a surprise to both teams in a way for Delhi pitching, the Angels were sure they would win in a gallop. They would if Delhi had been right, but he was not, for Vernon made thirteen swats off him. Any time that happens, any team is liable to be liable to make a hundred runs.

Still, he would have beaten Vernon in the ninth, but for a low throw by Atkin to first base, that drew Smith off the bag. This was followed with a pass to Stinson, and a single by McDonnell, that scored two runs, and won the game.

Delhi managed to retire the Vernons in the first inning and checked the second by fanning Stinson. Then McDonnell beat out an infield hit, Burrell cracked the ball to right and Hogan to left. McDonnell scoring. Carson was passed and after Carlisle had popped to Smith, Kane and the pitcher hit to center and the result of all of these pokes was four runs.

Carson began to pitch in the first and would have been scored on in the second had not McDonnell made a fine throw to the plate for a double play that kept Smith from scoring.

Moore led off the third with a double to the left fence, ran to third on Bernard's out at first and scored when Daley tripled over first base. Howard popped to Carson but Patterson had the ball knocked out of his hand at first and Daley scored on the error. Smith poked to left, sending McDonnell to third.

VERNON TAKES SERIES WITH BETTER BATTING AVERAGES.

VERNON won five out of seven games in the series with Los Angeles during the past week with an average batting percentage of .322 better and an average fielding percentage .061 less than the Angels.

A total of forty-eight runs was registered by the Hogan tribe to thirty-five by the Angels. Brackenridge, McDonnell, Daley and Brackenridge are on the honor roll with a batting average of better than .400. Brackenridge made a hit the only time he was at bat and finished with a perfect percentage .100 in the field and at bat.

The batting of both teams was lower than during series early in the season. Both teams have averaged well over the .300 mark on one or two occasions. A composite box score of the batting and fielding for the week follows:

to third and he tallied when Abbott doubled over first base.

With three runs tied Carson held the Angels until the sixth inning when Abbott singled, stole second and third and scored on Stinson's third double of the game to left field. Carson retired after the eighth and was replaced by Ruleigh who pitched the ninth inning.

After the second the Vernons did not worry Delhi much until he was finished in the last of the ninth. Carlisle, first up, singled to left and stole second. Then Kane popped to Moore and Patterson fanned. Brackenridge followed with his grounder which Atkin threw low. Stinson was passed, filling the bases and McDonnell shot the ball to center scoring Carlisle and Brackenridge.

The morning game was the hard hitting proposition and both Hitt and Coachman were banged hard and often.

Carlisle started the first inning with a triple to center. Kane was walked and Carlisle scored on a passed ball. Kane got to second on this and to third on Patterson's out at first. Brackenridge was passed and Stinson to left, scoring Kane. Then Hosp hit his first homer over the left fence scoring Stinson and McDonnell.

Three singles and an out made the next run in the third and Brackenridge's base, Stinson's triple and Hosp's second homer over the fence sent in three more runs. Two singles, two triples and a stolen base accounted for the three runs in the third and Kane's hit by pitcher, two steals and Stinson's sacrifice fly made the final run in the eighth.

A double by Howard, an out, a pass to Smith and a double steal by Howard and Smith scored the first Angel run. Two singles, a steal and a pass made two more runs in the eighth and a pass and three steals by Moore got another one in the fifth. Atkin's triple to left, Daley's single and right and Howard's double to left scored two runs in the ninth.

Kane was left in the first inning and the base stealing by Moore and Kane were the bright spots in the game, aside from Hosp's homers.

SUTOR COMES BACK AGAIN.Saves Seals From Losing Six
Out of Seven Games.Keeps Oaks From Making Runs Except in Ninth.Flater Opposes Harry But Is Not Impressive.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Baseball luck, the kind that has been following the Oaks all through the week, almost gave the Commuters a ninth inning Park that would have spelled six out of seven for the Oaks. But Harry Sutor, who had been pitching splendid ball up to the ninth, stopped the rapid fire of singles and doubles just in time to save himself a 2 to 2 victory. It was a close shave for the Seals, but they managed to pull through after the biggest crowd of the week.

John Flater faced Sutor, and Jack didn't show much. He was hit by a line drive in the eighth, and when they could have afforded them and helped the locals little in their run-getting.

After the lead of three tallies that Long's men had established in the fourth and fifth innings, it would have been little short of a catastrophe for the Oaks to have been turned out in the seventh, particularly in view of the fact that the Oaks were down to three men on base, and their south-paw, handed to the San Franciscoan in the forenoon.

Sutor, seemed with his game practically won, to let up in that eventful last of ninth. At all events, Hoffman bunted down toward third and beat the ball. Cutshaw forced tag and second, thanks more to luck than anything else and then came the bombardment. Zacher fled to right, but Howard and Cutshaw tallied. Wares landed the ball smash against the right field fence and Hettling made the circuit. Paces started to bat, but Wolverson elected to hit in a pinch and grounded to McArdle for an out.

Danny, one down and a pinch of relief at getting out from under.

Up to that stage of the proceedings, Harry Sutor had all the better of the battle. He had allowed but four hits, running in eight men and gave for one pitcher, he was not in danger.

The Most Perfect Corset

—why we claim corset superiority for the Coulter "Bon Quai e"

CORSETS, since the girly days of Eve, have undergone many evolutions. Without relating the historical transition in styles from the rigid, iron-clad corset of old, let us skip to the corset of only a few years ago. Until then medical authorities had looked askance at all manner of corsets and the mere mention of the word brought up lifted hands of horror at the physical bondage to which woman was subjected.

—Then came the "corset" Renaissance—so to speak—and a wave of reform swept the nation. The corset was designed more and more upon the classic lines and strict attention paid to every hygienic detail.

—Hence arose the question—"Why cannot one corset be made, moulding the merits of this corset and the best points of that corset, into one complete harmony of perfection—the ideal corset?"

—The conceived idea was by action soon developed into a reality and the assembled whole—the most perfect corset—was styled the Coulter "Bon Quai e."

SEARCHING FOR THE RIGHT MAN.

Library Board Wants to Fill Vacancy.

Dinner to Experts Tonight
at California Club.

To Exchange Views and Size
Up Possible Candidates.

"Hunting, just hunting," is the way
a number of well-known and highly successful librarians, now attending the national convention of the American Library Association in Pasadena, express their views when they speak of the situation in Los Angeles.

"The library board is seeking a librarian, a fireless man, one of the best to be obtained, and they are taking advantage of this meeting to get acquainted with the foremost men of the profession not only in the United States, but in the world," said one of the librarians, yesterday.

"It affords the Los Angeles board most excellent opportunity," he continued, "and we are perfectly willing to render any assistance possible. Los Angeles should have one of the very best librarians in the country. You have the people who are greatly interested in library work, drawn here by your matchless climate, but unfortunately matters have got into such a shape that a change is needed. All of our big libraries have passed through the same stage, and all of us who have gone through a like experience are willing to do what we can to help out a sister city."

CONFERENCE OF EXPERTS

For the purpose of having a heart-
to-heart conference, along these lines,
the members of the local library board will be the hosts tonight at a private dinner to be given at the California Club to a party of ten of the most skillful librarians of the United States; skilled not only in operating libraries, but men who have made a success in bringing libraries "out of the hole," so to speak.

Among the guests will be Frank P.
Mill of Brooklyn, recognized as the premier of librarians, particularly skilled in raising the standard of a library. He took hold of the institution of Newark, N. J., when it was sinking, run down then by the Brooklyn and built one of the best and most unique libraries in this country.

Other guests will be Henry E. Leg-ler, who will be elected vice-president of the American Library Association, and who has the reputation of working wonders with the big Chicago library; Dr. Arthur E. Boswick, formerly of New York City, who has brought the St. Louis library up to a very high standard; J. T. Jennings of Seattle, said to be one of the most progressive librarians on the Pacific Coast; R. R. Bowker, editor of "Public Libraries," recognized as a master mind in the library field, and who wields a powerful influence among those of his profession; Miss Alice S.
Tyler, secretary of the Iowa State Library Commission, a recognized authority on library organization and municipal government; and Miss Mary Tom, librarian at Portland.

It is known that since the resignation of Purd B. Wright, the local library board has received a large number of applications for the Los Angeles place. Many of these applicants have served with big libraries,
but the local board is unacquainted with them. At the dinner the names of many of these applicants will be brought out for discussion. None of the visitors are to be imposed upon in the way of speech-making, nor are their private opinions to be made public; but the local board wants to be sure that it is getting the proper man for the place, and will combine to investigate until it is satisfied.

It is said in some quarters
that some of the most successful librarians now in Pasadena will be tendered the Los Angeles place and will be given inducements to take hold and put the local institution on a par with the best. There is whether any announcements will be made of the successful candidates during the present convention is, of course, not known, but this would not surprise many of those who are on the inside.

Another matter to be discussed at the dinner is the advisability of civil service as applied to library employees. The local library is in the civil service class. With but few exceptions all librarians are absolutely opposed to civil service libraries. One of the leaders in this class is J. T.
Jennings of Seattle, who has eliminated civil service from that institution and who read a paper yesterday in which he severely arraigned the system.

ABOUT CIVIL SERVICE.
H. E. Legler of Chicago is working under civil service and will tell the local board what he thinks of it.
It is known that he opposes some of the phases, particularly the "fringe" clauses. He does not so much object to appointing under civil service, but prefers allowing the librarian to discharge for cause without going to a legal trial.

Any way the local board is to have opportunity to get valuable information which it could not possibly obtain by traveling about over the country at great waste of time and large expenditure of money. When the visitors leave for their homes the local people will have a rare fund of expert information regarding every library in North America, and of every leading librarian.

This was the identical reason for holding the national convention at Southern California. The meetings were held in Pasadena because the Merrill Hotel could be secured exclusively for the librarians, where they are allowed every privilege and convenience and can go about without annoyance or interference.

GRASS FIRES BRING ENIGMAS.
Fire Department Sues Flames
and Prevents Near-By Buildings
From Igniting—No Damage Done.
Several grass fires called out the fire department to different parts of the city yesterday. No damage was done.

About 8 o'clock yesterday morning
the tall grass in front of No. 147 Mienolla street became ignited. It is believed from a cigar stub, and burned furiously. Sparks from a near-by chimney set fire to the grass in the lot at No. 229 West Tenth street. The flames came in from Santa Barbara and Vermont avenues and Crenshaw boulevard.

will it be necessary to print and bind to fill orders at lowest prices---the prices in effect to-day---and MAY 31?

The most extensive manufacturing in the history of publishing is now under way. 68 printing machines
have been requisitioned for the American edition, and 8 of the largest New York binderies.

More Than 22,000 Applications Have Been Registered

In order, therefore, that the manufacturing may be completed economically and rapidly it is essential that the total number of sets for the first distribution shall be accurately determined by the last day of this month, and then, all of the remaining copies that will be required to execute orders registered by that date will be completed as one continuous operation and with the utmost dispatch.

No more copies will be printed and bound at present other than those for which applications shall be received up to the day on which the lists are closed.

While several thousand early subscribers
have had delivery of the first 14 volumes, and further deliveries are being made from day to day, the increasing demand for the new edition has for some weeks exceeded the capacity of the binders. It has therefore been necessary to place many applicants on a waiting list, each application as it is received being given a serial number.

The manufacture of this work (10 quartos of from 960 to 1060 pages each) quantities sufficient to satisfy the daily requirements of the sales department, for the time being, out of the question.

Application lists for the first distribution will be closed on May 31st, and the advanced, but meanwhile intending subscribers are urged to have their names registered without delay, the date of delivery in cases to be contingent upon priority of application.

Lists About to be Closed

The advantage of subscribing is therefore twofold—to enjoy the benefit the saving in cost by having your name entered on the subscription list before the prices are discontinued, and to secure priority of the work at the earliest possible moment.

SOME SIGNIFICANT STATISTICS

concerning the technical production of the new Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica which are unusually interesting because they are quite unparalleled.

A few of the most striking examples are here noted,

1. The number of "ems" of type in the 29 volumes is about 200,000,000.
2. The type if arranged together in one line would stretch across America from New York to San Francisco and one thousand miles out into the Pacific.
3. The type would weigh about 250 tons.
4. It is estimated that 100,000 pounds of ink will be required in the printing of the first edition.
5. The paper for the first edition alone represents ten million sheets, each sheet nearly 5 feet in length.

6. The pages of a single set amount six miles in length, and if all of the pages in the first edition were attached end to another, the strip would be sufficient long to encompass the earth twice and still leave a margin of 10,000 miles.
7. In the sewing of the volumes it is estimated that one hundred thousand yards of thread will be used.
8. The number of skins required to bind 25,000 sets—725,000 volumes—is 375,000.

DEFERRED DELIVERY

Subscribers who for one reason or another may prefer to take delivery of their books next fall or at the end of the year may do so, and their payments need not begin until delivery has been made. It is, advisable, however, in their case, that their applications shall be registered during the present month; that is, before the end of the period for making application at the lowest prices.

REVOLUTIONARY IN PRICE

In trying to estimate the value in money—
a totally distinct conception from its value in use, which is immeasurable—of the new 11th Edition, one labors under the fundamental disadvantage that there exists no book which covers the same field, and to which it can be adequately compared.

Taking, however, the 9th Edition as a Standard and comparing the price, $7.50
a volume, at which that edition was sold,
the 11th Edition, with all its improvements in information and arrangement, must clearly be cheap at its present price of $4.00
a volume.

Another line of thought leading to a kind of comparative estimate is afforded by the market value of the writings of the experts who wrote the articles. Judged by the amount of printed matter they contain, the 29 volumes of the 11th Edition are equivalent to three or four hundred volumes of the length to which technical works usually run.
The reader will therefore readily perceive that any computation on this basis would make the 11th Edition worth many times the price which the publishers are, at the present time, asking for it.

Still a last estimate—and perhaps the most convincing—is possible. If there were only one copy of the Encyclopaedia Britannica in existence, the advantage its possession would confer would be almost priceless. Is this advantage in any way lessened, is its money equivalent in any respect depreciated by the fact that the usefulness of the work to mankind has been multiplied thousands of times by bringing it within the means of everyone to buy?

NEW INDIA PAPER FORMAT

As further extending its usefulness as an instrument of popular culture, the editors of the 11th Edition consider that the adoption of India paper logically completes the material side a refining process by which the aggregate of knowledge estimated to be twice as great as that contained in the 10th Edition has been brought within the compass of 28 volumes, each but on inch thick.

The 11th Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica comprises 28 quarto volumes, each containing 960 to 1060 pages, and an index volume containing 500,000 references.

The 40,000 articles into which its contents are divided aggregate more than 40,000,000 words, and the authority of the text is ensured by 7000 text illustrations, 450
page plates and 569 maps.

Illustrated prospectus (40 pages) of pages on India paper, 4 specimen plates and application showing the special advance terms be sent upon receipt of request.

WOLGAST DOES GREAT STUNT.

Boxes Five Boys and Shores In Fine Condition.

Three of the Young Pugs are Knocked Down.

Champion Apparently Ready Now to Meet Burns.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Ad Wolgast's boxing show at the Seal Rock pavilion today, in which the champion boxed ten rounds, meeting all comers and scored knockdowns on three of the men who donned the gloves with him, will not have a tendency to strengthen the betting price as regards Frankie Burns, his opponent. There were perhaps 2,000 spectators in the big building, to see the Michigan boy go through his paces, and they were visibly impressed with his showing.

Three of the rounds were between Wolgast and Hobo Dougherty, his sparring partner. The title holder also worked out two rounds with Charlie Rogers, who is to meet Willie "Anole" next Saturday afternoon in the ten-round preliminary; two with Earl Canova; two with Harry Reinhold; and one with Eddie Norman.

The champion dropped to the canvas from the Wolgast punch, and was disciplined each one of them when he discovered their game and the crowd howled its approval.

With all that boxing in addition to shadow work and bag punching, and the stomach and chest work, Wolgast had a full program, the most extensive work out that he will take during his entire training course.

ROGERS TELLS WHY.

Rogers gives the best explanation of the work of Wolgast.

"He's one of the strongest boys at his weight that I ever boxed with," says the local chap. "He could wrestle any one of us around pretty much as he pleased. He's got a great left, too, and from the way he used it I don't think that it is going to bother him any when he fights Burns. He will start that left, say for the body, and then hit you on the chin. And then, also, he will lead the left and shift with the right to the body. It is in the clinches, however, that he does his most effective work. He's a great little scrapper for his inches and as strong as a bull."

That left punch of Wolgast in which the fighter will lead for the stomach and then land on the chin, to which Rogers refers, is undoubtedly the same sort of a little scrapping move which he showed at the end of his fight with George Dixon most famous. The blow does not necessarily travel far but has plenty of punishing power behind it.

Wolgast showed that his wind was good and that he could, as he says, take on Burns today if he wanted to. No fighter, not even a champion, can take on five different boys with all the styles that their boxing will naturally represent and go full tilt for ten rounds, unless his condition is right.

not break out, and Chester Moore made the long journey aloft to the truck and untangled the kite.

Mischief rounded the windward mark at 3:15, and broke out the spinnaker like clockwork, thereby picking up some of the time she had lost in the windward work.

The other boats followed in the same order they maintained to the finish. A hard gybe was necessary on rounding the breakwater for the run to the finish line, and when the "Mop" gybed Moore parted company with the box, but was picked a minute later by Joe Fellows, who was following the race with the "Campbell," somewhat surprised, but none the worse for his involuntary bath.

It was blowing near gale in the outer harbor, but this was nuts for the Adams' boat, and she plowed through it in fine style. Wolgast, however, did not do so well, as there was too much atmosphere for him, and he carried a big luff in his mainsail, and made heavy weather all the way home. In fact, it was in the outer harbor sailing that the race was won and lost. After Mischief, the Nixie sailed in serenely, but evidently out of the running. A long wait for the little fellows then ensued, as they trailed home wet, but happy, and perfectly satisfied that they had done their level best to win.

There was quite a discussion at the clubhouse afterward, as the Mah-pe had violated two of the racing rules, one by towing to the line after the preparatory gun, and one by carrying ten men where she was only allowed six. The Regatta Committee, however, had not seen the latter violation, and would not disqualify her without a written protest which no one would make. As to the former, Mah-pe's crew cleared the clubhouse in getting her in at all, as it was not thought that she could be got ready in time for the race, and in fact, they finished rigging her while towing out to the start. In view of this fact the windward mark was decided and the wind was setting against them, upsetting their calculations and forcing them to tack many times before rounding.

The Mah-pe reached the Vincente buoy at 3:55 p.m. Her first sail men had her spinnaker pole set to starboard, but as she rounded, instead of paying off the gybe, and Stewart forced her back on the starboard tack and took her jib off before setting the spinnaker. This all delayed matters, and it was more than three minutes before her light sail was drawing. Even then all the stops did

BEACH EXPERTS CRICKET STARS.

San Diego Team Puts Up Very Spectacular Game.

Wilkes and Elliot Collar Borderers' Bowling.

Pennington Wrought Havoc In Local Ranks.

At Coronado yesterday, the Santa Monica Cricket Club beat San Diego by an innings and 14 runs. This was the first match of the season for the championship of Southern California and a large and fashionable crowd filled the spacious pavilions of the Polo Club to see the play.

Never in the history of cricket in this State has such magnificent fielding been witnessed as was in evidence throughout the match. The bowling at times was almost unplayable, while the batting was clean, aggressive and frequently of a very high order.

With characteristic luck, P. J. Higgins, the popular Santa Monica captain, won the toss and put San Diego in to bat first on a wicket that was in the process of taking after a night's soaking.

Pennington, who is one of the most ardent players in the Crescent city team and one of the star bowlers, made the first runs of the match with a four to square leg off Higgins. In trying to steal a run, however, he was smartly run out by Wilkes, who threw the ball from mid on. Willoughby, an ex-Los Angeles cricketer, played out the balance of the innings.

Elliot essayed to bowl at the opposite end and proved unplayable. In his first over he knocked Page's stump clean out of the ground. Two wickets for five runs. With the score unchanged he upset Santopina's wicket, and was nearly run out on the next ball by Cochran, who was returning the ball smartly to the bowler.

Tornton, the wicket was put down and the umpire declared him out. Tornton, however, had unconsciously dropped the ball. Wilkes was asked to continue batting, which he did amid much applause. This was appreciated by Wilkes, as he promptly put Elliot to leg for a couple.

With the score standing at three wickets for only ten runs, the San Diego team was in a very bad way. The San Diego team was in a very bad way.

GOOD MAN LOST.

Martin was completely beaten by Elliot. With his dismissal, San Diego lost one of its most dashing players in trying to get a run. Wilkes, who had kept his end up for twenty-five minutes, was brilliantly caught in the slips by Stocker. In the goosy trundler, half the side being out for only twenty-two runs.

Chappell, who looked good for a big score, was given out leg-before by Higgins in trying to pull Tornton. The next ball Tomkins beat Ballantine, with a beauty that rose quickly.

Kemp, who last year, made such a fine start, was out for a second time, before he could get set. Rod did a splendid thing for San Diego, by catching out at long leg leg by Hunt. With the dismissal of Smith, Higgins closed the innings for thirty-four runs. Hardill, a Yorkshire county player, carried out his bat.

THE LOCALS OPEN.

Requiring only thirty runs to win the first championship match, Elliot and Hunt started the batting for Santa Monica. Gauderon and Page attacked. With the exception of the wide and one bye, no runs were scored in the opening over. When he had made only two runs, Elliot gave an easy chance to Smith at square leg off Page. Had this captain accepted a very different aspect would have been put on the score. This life proved disastrous for San Diego, as Elliot settled down to punish the bowling to the tune of fifty-nine, before being caught out by Willoughby.

Page kept a capital length and bowled with considerable vigor. He was not out of his mind, however, by knocking that batsman's leg stump out of the ground. One wicket for four runs. Wilkes, the greatest cricketer of the game in California, partnered Elliot. It was then that the most spectacular play of the day was witnessed. Cuts, forward strokes, drives and leg hits were made in rapid succession. The bowling was changed.

One of the smartest bits of fielding was that of Ballantine. He saved the day for Wilkes, who had spread his team that it was a difficult matter to get the ball past them except by exquisite placing.

With seven runs to win and only one wicket down, an interval for luncheon was taken. British Consul Hutchinson and a bevy of the fair sex acted as hosts to the hungry team.

WINNING HIT.

On resumption of play, Elliot made the winning hit with a four to deep square leg off Gauderon, on run short of the coveted century. Wilkes was smartly taken in the slips by Gauderon, off Pennington. Allan the Forfarshire cricketer sent the century up with a single one run. Later Elliot was caught out.

With the breaking up of the partnership established by Wilkes and Elliot, the great cricketers were disastrously at the hands of Pennington, who captured six wickets for only nineteen runs.

Forster was given out leg-before; wicket; Higgins, the Jesop of America, was given out first ball for a single; Wilkes, the greatest cricketer of the game in California, partnered Elliot. MEASURES FOR COMING YEAR.

PASADENA BOARD OF TRADE HAS WORK AHEAD.

Public School Principal Claims Less Cigarette Smoking in His Town Than Elsewhere in California.

PASADENA, May 22.—While the board of trade has accomplished wonders during the past year in establishing harmony of interests and in putting through many things for the welfare of the city, its work is not done. Many important measures are ahead for next year. One of these is the securing for the city of the ground for Arroyo Park; the settlement of the water question and the possible consolidation of Pasadena, South Pasadena and Altadena.

DOWN WITH CIGARETTES.
An enthusiastic meeting of the Anti-Cigarette League was held in the First Christian Church yesterday afternoon and many interesting talks were made. Prof. W. H. Holland of the public schools, told of the work which has been done in the local Y.M.C.A. to get the boys and men, for that matter, to abstain from the use of tobacco.

"There is less cigarette smoking in Pasadena," he said, "than any other city in the country. I was in Redondo and Long Beach recently and I saw much more than in Pasadena. The president of the W.C.T.U. gave a brief history of the organization saying that it is the largest organization of women in the world; that it is just 28 years old today."

VASSAR LUNCHEON.
A delightful affair of Saturday afternoon was the luncheon given by Miss Orton at her school on South Euclid avenue, to the Vassar alumni of Southern California. Decorations were in Vassar colors, pink and gray, which was carried out with a profusion of pink sweet peas and dusty miller. Thirty-two Vassar graduates were present. The guest of honor was Dr. James Orton, who, for many years, was a professor in Vassar.

The funeral of John Jacob Buckius who died at his home suddenly Saturday night, will be held from the residence, Tuesday afternoon, with full Masonic honors.

CLERICAL TRADESMAN'S JOB.
Methodist Minister Says He Has Built Numerous Parsonages and Churches With His Own Hands.

INGLEWOOD, May 21.—"I have built a line of churches and parsonages from Western Pennsylvania to the Pacific Coast, and all with my own hands," was the declaration of Rev. H. C. Galbraith, pastor of the M. E. Church of this city as he gave the last nail into the house which he has been building for his nephew, J. A. Galbraith, recently here from Tacoma, Wash. During the week Mr. Galbraith worked on the house, trade and on Sundays speaks to one of the largest congregations of the city.

A. O. Wright, building inspector, has issued permits aggregating $15,000 during the past week. This figure is a record breaker for this city.

Finding that it is almost impossible for anyone to find a suitable place to board and room when visiting here, local business men have been thinking of forming a syndicate for the purpose of building a large and modern hotel.

J. T. Lettwith, a member of the grammar school board, claims that one year ago he circled a petition asking Council to improve Nutwood avenue. The vault is built for the accommodation of funds of a bank ten times the size of the Savings Bank.

Floy James, No. 1700 Monterey road, an employee of the Corlies jewelry store of Pasadena, while winding an outdoor clock, lost his balance yesterday and fell from the ladder, breaking an arm, and severely spraining his back.

The first large milk exhibit to be held in this city took place Friday and Saturday in the High School building, under the auspices of the Woman's Improvement Association.

Several of the larger dairies donated exhibits. Short addresses were given on "The Cow and Its Milk," "Milk and Milk Products as Foods," "The Care of the Milk in the House," "The Ideal Dairy," "Milk and the Baby."

Superintendent George C. Bush of the public schools took the opportunity to show the work being done by the manual training, domestic science and arts and crafts departments. In the manual training room, the parents and friends were shown the work that is being done by the boys.

Under the direction of Miss Sarah McCrea, a good exhibit was shown in the domestic art department. The exhibits were all from High School girls. The art exhibit prepared by Miss Ada Cline, art instructor, was equally interesting.

Mrs. Roscoe B. Ashley, well known club woman, has removed from her home, corner of Fair Oaks and Frank streets, to her former home, No. 685 Crescent Square, Pasadena.

DELEGATES JOIN IN WIRING THE PRESIDENT.

Sight-seeing Trips Are Not Neglected and the Visitors Practically Have Seen All of Southern California—Important Addresses Are On Programme.

"So far, the Pasadena convention has been the most successful ever held by the American Library Association, and it is only half done. Much good work and many pleasure excursions ahead." This is the text of a telegram sent yesterday afternoon by George E. Wiley, secretary of the American Library Association, to President James I. Weyer, Jr., at Albany.

Before the delegates depart for their homes Saturday morning, they will have been shown nearly all of Southern California except San Diego. Yesterday practically all went to Catalina for an outing. This afternoon the Los Angeles Library Board will show them over the city and take them to the beaches. A special train of electric cars have been chartered for the trip. Tuesday afternoon, the time will be enjoyed automobiling around Pasadena. Thursday and Friday will be the Riverside and Mt. Lowe trips.

One of the interesting events today will be the address which will be given by Dr. Arthur E. Bostwick of the St. Louis library before the members of the Ebell Club. The lecture will take place at 2:30 o'clock on the subject "Companionship of Book." Dr. Bostwick is an accomplished speaker, lecturer, author and literary critic.

That the importance of the work being done at the convention headquarters is receiving much attention throughout Southern California is proven by the fact that yesterday Purdy E. Wiley, secretary of the American Library Association, in connection with the convention, had four telephone requests from different clubs and literary organizations in Los Angeles, asking for speakers for various meetings.

Arthur Chamberlain of Pasadena, this morning, has been elected president of the National Educational Association, and will speak on "Increasing the Efficiency of the Library as an Educational Factor."

EXPLOSION NEARLY COSTS LIFE.

Cable Splicer Badly Burned and Almost Blind While Working in Manhole With Lighted Torch.

Pyster, Gratz, of No. 1512 East Fourteenth street, a young Russian employed by the Pacific Light and Power Company as a cable splicer, was dangerously burned late last night by an explosion of gas at the bottom of a manhole at Third and San Pedro streets.

Gratz was one of a crew of workmen engaged on repairs and alterations to the underground cables in that neighborhood. While the others were employed a few blocks away, he went to the manhole to finish soldering new joints in lead-covered cables. As he reached the bottom of the manhole, he dropped a lighted torch, which exploded, blowing him back into the manhole, which contained about a quart of gasoline.

Gas accumulated in the deep conduits, igniting the gasoline and spraying the burning liquid over his hands, arms, face and shoulders. Though nearly blinded by the flash, Gratz retained presence of mind and clambered out of the manhole. In his haste, he struck his head against a corner of the manhole, and a gash over the left eye and almost knocking him back into the manhole, which contained about a quart of gasoline.

Gay Habillments of Mrs. Trammell Are Identified as Miss Willie's Property, and Latter—She Hips Jacket Off and Completes the Job at Police Station.

The invocation which was rolling from the lips of Miss Pitts, a native of Miss Zion Baptist Church, was rudely interrupted yesterday morning and the crowded congregation thrown into confusion by a light between the two most fashionably dressed women in the colored house of worship.

Miss Willie Pitts of No. 1314 Channing street recognized as her property the habillments which graced the person of Miss Pitts, and proceeded at once to recover them by main strength.

Sitting behind Mrs. Trammell, it took her only a few seconds after the congregation had become seated to identify the property of her rival, one which she says mysteriously disappeared just before Easter from her wardrobe, stood up, reached over the back of the pew, seized the jacket to the lapels and tore it off.

Underneath was a waist, also claimed by that an officer shall not seek cover, or at least shall not show apprehension of danger to his person. In time of battle and in the presence of enlisted men or common sailors, the Franco-Prussian War nearly killed another in his place. They were killed and the great majority of them gave up their lives because they believed in this law of conduct.

side the chapel the bride party was greeted by a deafening salvo; the range-riders and vaqueros from the Don Domingos and Porter ranches keeping up a continuous discharge of six-shooters while the four great mission bells pealed out in simultaneous joy.

From the mission the party and the entire populace proceeded to Julia Egan's grounds, where a Spanish barbecue was served. The spot is the most beautiful around the city, and in the grateful shade of giant palms and eucalyptus trees the wedding breakfast in the shade of the mission and a few tables of the guests were seated.

The six Spanish cooks in charge of the barbecue are perhaps the best in California today; as was attested by the product of their skill. French macaroni, preceded by delicious salsa, frioles, olives and fruit. Last of all came immense fruit cakes and old claret in a feast as bounteous as Don Quixote and his hungry henchmen attended on their travels through old Castile.

UNWRITTEN LAWS.

Traditions Which Have Almost the Force of Statutes and Are So Recognized.

There is a class of unwritten law which does not and cannot become written law, says Case and Comment, and it approaches so near the danger line that man dare not recognize it to the extent of publishing it and declaring it as a part of the positive law of the society today.

GERMAN INSURRECTO DIES IN TIA JUANA CORRAL.

Proves From Papers Found On Him to Have Been a Butcher With a Bank Account in San Francisco—Rate War Brewing on Steamship Lines.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, May 21.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Otto Sonntag was killed by the discharge of his own rifle while doing sentry duty at the corral of the rebel camp at Tia Juana today. He was in the corral when other insurgents heard the discharge of his rifle. They found him with a gaping wound in one side. The wounded man was brought to the camp of the American soldiers, where he died. The remains were taken to a local undertaker and will be buried here.

Sonntag was a butcher, 33 years old, and a native of Dresden. He joined the rebel army when it was first organized. He has no relatives in this country. His papers disclose that he had an account with the German American National Bank, San Francisco.

RATE WAR BREWING.

The probability of a steamship rate war is caused by the announcement that the North Pacific Company has made a reduction of 50 cents in the passenger fare between here and Los Angeles.

The steamers Roanoke and George W. Elder will carry passengers to and from Los Angeles for $2.50, which includes northbound, berth, one meal and street car fare from San Pedro. The round trip is to be $5. These figures are lower than the railroad and lower than other steamship charges.

It Pays to Advertise.

Paderevski arrived in a small western town about noon one day and decided to take a walk in the afternoon. While strolling along he heard a piano and, following the sound, came to a house on which was a sign reading:

"Miss Jones. Piano lessons 25 cents an hour."

Passing to listen, he heard the young woman trying to play one of Chopin's nocturnes and not succeeding.

Paderevski walked up to the house and knocked. Miss Jones came to the door and recognized him at once. Delighted, she invited him in and he sat down and played the nocturne as only Paderevski can, afterward spending an hour in correcting her mistakes. Miss Jones thanked him and he departed.

Some months afterwards he returned to the town and again took the same walk.

He soon came to the home of Miss Jones, and, looking at the sign, he read:

"Miss Jones. Piano lessons $1 an hour. (Pupil of Paderevski.)"

FAIR DIVA HAS IDEAS.

Her Choice, Not Artist's to B Carried Out.

Santa Barbara Channel is Poorly Lighted.

Prospects of Establishing New Rifle Range.

SANTA BARBARA, May 21.—Mary Garden, the well-known diva, who made a brief visit in Santa Barbara, Friday, to view the scenes around which the play "Natomas" is woven, met Alexander Harner, the artist who painted the scenes for the great opera. During her interview with Mr. Harner, Miss Garden frankly told him that she does not intend to carry out his suggestions as to the costume she should wear in presenting the play.

"Natomas" according to Mr. Rodding's book comes from a tribe of Indians to the north of Santa Barbara, and as the maid and companion of "Barbara" she should, in the opinion of Mr. Harner, copy her dress after the style of her mistress' apparel. Miss Garden, however, intends to wear a costume of white buckskin when the opera is next presented, modeled more after the conventional Indian maiden of stage and fiction. She believes that this costume will make a better stage appearance and that it will be the wiser for the slight departure from local accuracy.

SANTA BARBARA LIGHT.

Lieutenant-Commander W. A. Moffitt, light-house inspector for the Pacific Coast, who is in Santa Barbara on an inspection tour said last night that the whole west coast is in need of protection at the hands of Congress and the Lighthouse Board.

"The Lighthouse Board has been necessary for additional lights and other precautions and has made many reports that have not been carried out because appropriations have not been made by Congress," said the inspector.

The inspector stated that the Santa Barbara channel is poorly lighted and that a new light will be installed at the local end of the channel that can be seen for eighteen miles. Commander Moffitt also discussed the proposed rifle range to be established on the Pacific Coast and said he believed Santa Barbara has a good chance to land it.

Among the guests at the Arlington Hotel are Rear-Admiral T. C. McLean, U.S.N., retired, and his wife. The couple were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Gale at their country place on the Coast highway.

Domestic Help Problem.

A domestic servant at Heidelberg, advertising for a position as cook and maid of all work, announcing that she would be glad to receive employment in keeping with her special talents. Forty-five replies reached her yesterday, but she was not unworried by notices, either because of insufficient wages or because the work was too hard lived in a "undesirable" locality or higher than the second story.

The five ladies on whom the servant decided to bestow her favor temporarily received written notice that she would do herself the pleasure of calling on the succeeding Sunday between 2 and 4 o'clock.

She devoted the afternoon to informing herself as to the character of each family, the regular periods at which rises in wages might be expected, the amount of entertaining done, the character and value of gratuities and presents customarily given to servants, how many free evenings a month were allowed and how long a summer holiday might be expected.

After imparting the desired information the ladies were informed that the servant would be glad to accept of any position and to be paid the amount of her choice. She was then asked to select a day and hour for her call.

City Without Pawnshops.

The city of Paterson, N. J., with a population of 125,000 has only one licensed pawnshop and it is believed that the permit for that will not be renewed when it expires. The condition is not due to lack of applicants for the privilege of lending money on personal effects. Mayor McBride is constantly importuned to license pawnbrokers but he is opposed to the business, and has consistently refused to act favorably on the applications.

Several years ago the board of trade of Paterson, organized a "remedial loan company" for the purpose of advancing money to worthy persons in temporary need. This organization charges the lowest possible interest on advances, and its design is to meet the necessities of those who in another community might suffer their needs. In doing this Mayor McBride believes that the "remedial loan company" provides for the legitimate wants of the community, and does all that a well-regulated pawnshop should do.—(New York Sun)

DESERT TRIP REVEALS GOLD.

Colorado Desert Crossed by Prospectors.

Saturday Afternoon Club Elects Officers.

Banning Will Have New Jail Built.

BANNING, May 22.—Marchall and Nathaniel, prospectors, have completed a most remarkable tour of the Colorado desert between White-water River and Yuma, having gone over nearly all the surveyed land and large tracts of unsurveyed desert land which probably no human being had ever before set foot upon. Leaving Yuma some months since, with the usual contingent of pack burros, these men entered the great unexplored waste lying between the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe lines. Gold discovery being their purpose, they took particular note of the mineral features and they were gratified in finding a great deal of promising mining territory, which will be surely opened some day when a railroad will tap the desert via the Morongo Valley.

This peace-loving community is to have a jail at last. The location of the town on the main line of the Southern Pacific, where much of the box-car traffic pauses, or stops over, makes the building of a jail an act of wisdom. Riverside county will bear the expense.
